9.00

→ East India Company came to India for trade. But before 1857 the trade was colonial which always thought about the benefit of other country.

11.00

→ After 1857 which was also the age of commercial revolution affected Indian trade.

13.00

→ This commercial trade had 3 features
 1) Increase in trade inside the country
 2) Increase in drain of wealth
 3) Increase in export and import

14.00

17.00

1) First of all the trade was inside the country because of train, ship and better roads, the exchange between village and city was increased.

19.00

20.00

→ Although in imperial or colonial policy affected Indian economy a lot. Inside Indian exchange especially inside was also affected by this policy.

NOTES

→ The production of goods which are

9.00 beneficial for their use produce more and more and more used by Indian. like there also started clothes and other things.

10.00 ~~3~~ Brain of wealth theory classify clearly that how the Indian wealth obtained to England by trade. the things to which are produced in India sell in Britain and some products which were produce in India like cotton cloth also used in Indian market and found profits.

11.00 ~~4~~ A lot of money gathered by the officers by prison and others way also obtained by them in England.

12.00 ~~3~~ Export similarity export and import increased. Export was more increased than import. It was one sided benefit of britishers.

13.00 ~~2~~ Although export gained a huge benefit but not met for quality. Searching for National writer's this economic progress is not for Indians. It was totally suited for britishers.

9,00 When we focus on the feature of trade at that time we found or unnatural internal imbalance in trade.

10,00 → It has time India became the star material producer and market for finished goods.

11,00 → The important question raised by Indian economist about commercial autonomy and control of trade.

12,00 → When in India industrialization was started then it was great need of to give economic protection for those industry by increasing import of goods by some product that India was not give already of British traders.

13,00 → Spec trade and Commerce increased during the world wars ~~and~~ but only for war goods and immediate ~~need~~ so many problems.

14,00 Hence we can see that British trade and commerce policy fulfill only the benefits of Britishers and India suffered a lot.
